Important information for contributors: Contributions to CSF PAC are not tax deductible. All contributions are voluntary and will be used for political purposes. You have the right to refuse to contribute without any reprisal. Contributions by check and credit card must be personal in nature. Corporate contributions may not be accepted and will be returned. The amounts listed above are suggestions only. Individuals are free to contribute more or less than the suggested amounts, and CSF will not favor nor disadvantage anyone by reason of the amount of their contribution or a decision not to contribute. Individuals may not contribute more than $5,000 in a calendar year. Federal law requires CSF PAC to use its best efforts to collect and report the name, occupation, mailing address, and name of employer of any individual whose aggregate contributions exceed $200 in a calendar year. Contributions must be from US citizens or lawful permanent residents of the United States (holders of valid green cards).
